No Applications for Work at Homestead The Men Nervous and Suspicious.

IPPPCIAL TO THE EVERING WORLD. Pittsburg, Pa., July 10,—Has Hugh O'Don-nell started for Scotland to make a personal appeal to Andrew Carnegie to interiere in This question is suggested to the minds of many here by the rumor afford last night that O'Donnell will sail for Europe to-day. As the story ran, Owen Murphy, a friend of O'Donnell, recently sold out his business at Homewhere he was joined by O'Donnell, and the two were to make a tour of Ireland, O'Donnell going as Murphy's guest. O'Donnell's statement when he left Pittsburg night before last, that if he was successful in the mission he was starting on the trouble at Homestead would be settled, in now connected with the rumor that he is to sail to-day, and there are not a few who be-Here that the real meaning of O'Donneil's words was that if he could prevall upon Mr. Carnegie to interfere the Ho would be decided without detest to the Amal gama.ed Association.
